

Dent Family Cemetery
CH-682
Olivers Shop vic.
Public

1840-1867

The Dent Family Cemetery is located on the western boundary of Gilbert Run Park. Most stones are carved of limestone and include only initials. The majority date to the mid-19th century and are characterized by either an ornately carved crest or a simple rounded crest. The Dent Family Cemetery is indicative of the burial customs of Charles County citizens during the mid-19th century. Common elements found here include its location on high ground overlooking a creek bed, and typical tablets with little to no ornamentation. The Dents were a prominent family in the area.

The Dent Family Cemetery is located on the western boundary of Gilbert Run Park. More specifically, the site can be found at the crest of a wooded hill next to a cleared field overlooking Gilbert Run Lake. A mid-20th century gambrel roof barn stands nearby. The cemetery includes 7 visible stones. Most stones are carved of limestone and include only initials. The majority date to the mid-19th century and are characterized by either an ornately carved crest or a simple rounded crest. Many have been broken, turned over or disrupted by overgrowth and vermin. A very large mangled and overgrown cedar stands at the site.

Prepare a one-paragraph summary statement of significance addressing applicable criteria, followed by a narrative discussion of the history of the resource and its context. (For compliance reports, complete evaluation on a DOE Form - see manual.)

The Dent Family Cemetery is indicative of the burial customs of Charles County citizens during the mid-19th century. Common elements found here include its location on high ground overlooking a creek bed, and typical tablets with little to no ornamentation. The Dents were a prominent family in the area. Nearby Dentsville, a 19th century crossroads, village was named for this family who had extensive landholdings in the immediate area. Nearby Dent's Palace (CH-40) is also associated with the Dent family.
